Deputy Chief Jason Leverton discussed the Plan to Review Policy. He gave an overview of how the policies are organized and that they can be found on the city website. He also gave an overview of how the accreditation process works.

Brief discussion ensued regarding the Plan to Review Policy.

City Manager Bill Nicklas asked the Board if they felt the City has sufficiently made it known the pathway that citizens have to make complaints. Mr. Walker suggested that a blast go out to the City on how to make complaints. Mr. McDavid suggested that this discussion would be addressed in the Draft of Board Procedures. Mr. Walker and Mr. McDavid explained that it was difficult for them to access the online complaint form. Chief David Byrd suggested the board have its own website and once that is up and running it can be put out to the public. Mr. Carlson asked how many complaints have been submitted since the inception of the board. Chief David Byrd explained that there have not been any submitted through the portal.

Mr. McDavid then opened a discussion regarding the Draft of Board Procedures. He brought up confidentiality of what is discussed. Ms. Noreiko inquired if votes would be released to the public and if the Chair would be the one speaking for the board. Mr. Walker stated he wanted to speak for himself. Chief David Byrd said this would be a decision that needed to go through legal and the council.

Brief discussion ensued regarding the Draft of Board Procedures.
