DeKalb Police Arrest Two for the October 31st, 2017 Shooting

The DeKalb Police announced today that two offenders have been charged, who are alleged to have been involved in an October 31st incident where several shots were fired in to an occupied vehicle, in the 800 block of North Annie Glidden Road. A 28-year-old female sustained a gunshot wound to her leg, while in the vehicle.

Khalief McAllister, 20, of DeKalb and Anthony Rogers, 19, of Aurora, IL are being held in DeKalb County Jail. Warrants for their arrest were issued on April 6th, 2018 for attempt first degree murder and bond was set at $50,000 dollars. Both McAllister and Rogers were already incarcerated in the DeKalb County Jail in regard to the October 20th shooting that occurred on Greenbrier Road.

On October 31, 2017 (Halloween), the DeKalb Police Department, Northern Illinois University Police Department, the DeKalb County Sheriffs Department, and the DeKalb Fire Department responded to the 800 block of North Annie Glidden Road in reference to a shooting. As officers arrived on scene, they observed a vehicle that crashed through a fence and struck a utility pole. Police and paramedics rendered aid to a victim who was shot, who was transported to the hospital where the victim was treated and released. Detectives processed the crime scene for evidence and collected numerous shell casing. The offenders shot into an occupied car and also directed gunfire into nearby apartments.

With the assistance from witnesses and video surveillance, suspects were identified and arrested on April 6th, 2018. The DeKalb Police and the DeKalb County States Attorney's Office continue to investigate and anticipate further arrest(s).
