The DeKalb County Convention & Visitors Bureau (DCCVB) is an organization dedicated to promoting tourism in DeKalb County.

This agreement between the City of DeKalb and the DeKalb County CVB recognizes the importance of promoting tourism activities throughout the community, as well as the benefits reaped from the implementation of various tourism-related projects.

The DeKalb County Convention & Visitors Bureau is designed to:

♦ Increase convention and meeting business as a means to increase hotel/motel tax revenue, as well as food/beverage tax revenue.

♦ Serve as a clearinghouse for meeting and event activity for the benefit of meeting planners and hoteliers.

♦ Assist individuals/groups visiting DeKalb County in planning an event to suit their needs.

Given its primary goal to positively impact convention and tourism business in DeKalb County, in FY16 the DCCVB will continue to advance their core areas of marketing, fund-raising and recruitment/retention of convention events.

MARKETING – Continuing to build on the brand and name recognition already established for the DeKalb County Convention & Visitors Bureau is vital to the DCCVB’s long-term success.

- Maintain partnership with NIU for the visitor kiosk at the Convocation Center. This kiosk has a 23” touch-screen monitor and displays literature for our visitor guides and other tourism promotion materials. The touch screen allows visitors to access the DCCVB and NIU websites instantaneously.

- Foster partnership with Northern Illinois University Relations to distribute 10,000 visitor guides to students, parents, faculty and staff. The guide is considered one of the premiere recruiting tools that NIU and other corporate businesses use to attract people to our area.

- Distribute a minimum 40,000 Visitor Guides that promote DeKalb County at 10 Tourism Information Centers; Belvidere, O’Hare, Hinsdale, and DeKalb Kiosks.

- Market DeKalb County attractions on all state-wide websites to promote our area to both meeting planners and leisure travelers: EnjoyIllinois.com, Tour Illinois, Meet In Illinois, Sports Illinois, ChicagoandBeyond.com and Drivelincolnhighway.com.
• Continue as a guest columnist for the Daily Chronicle. The DCCVB will submit an article every 6 weeks that is related to tourism in DeKalb County and the economic impact that we are generating for the area.

• Publish E-Newsletters to partners to keep them informed of our marketing efforts and activities as schedule permits.

♦ Take advantage of social networking to market our area including Facebook, Twitter, Flickr, Pinterest, and YouTube to promote our area free-of-charge and improve our visibility when people perform searches on their computers.

♦ Maintain website (www.dekalbcountycvb.com) as a primary tool offering comprehensive information about the community, events, attractions, and resources which provides important links to other community resources and helps planners coordinate their events.

♦ Work with area attractions, arts, and cultural groups to obtain information for an annual calendar of events to post on the DCCVB website to promote the area and persuade visitors to plan return visits.

♦ Respond to inquiries regarding DeKalb County tourist attractions and meeting facilities and supply welcome bags, visitor guides, downtown DeKalb brochures and maps to groups.

FUND-RAISING – The DCCVB will work to seek other funding sources to expand its budget and strive toward economic stability for the organization. All CVBs must have local matching dollars in order to be considered for re-certification from the State of Illinois.

• The DCCVB will raise local funding to match the Marketing Partnership Grant from the State of Illinois.

♦ Act as a key contributor to the success of the 2015 Kite Fest by raising funding through sponsorships to support the event.

RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION OF CONVENTION BUSINESS—The DCCVB will continue to build positive relationships with current meeting/convention business, as well as attract new business to host events in DeKalb County from outside the county.

• Continue as a member of the steering committee that hosts the IHSA State Football Championships.

• Work with event coordinators to book hotel rooms for a variety of events including (but not limited to) the MS Tour de Farms event, IESA state wrestling competition, IHSA State Football Championships, Pop Warner Cheer Group, U Triple A Slugfest Tournaments, Phantom Regiment Drum Corp, Arts Midwest, Jehovah Witness Groups, Destination Imagination, IL State Steppers Competition, Miss Fox Valley, DeKalb Youth Football Midwest Tournament, Chuck Dayton Basketball Tournament, Don Flavin Wrestling Tournament, Illinois Square Dance Convention, Weddings and Class Reunions, and overnight tour groups as requested.
